Chinese American Museum in DC

Hot off the press!

The South China Morning Post published an article hours ago titled "New US museum's goal: show how Chinese-Americans are woven into the nation's fabric."

Walking into the yet unopened Chinese-American Museum in Washington, visitors are greeted with a simple message on the wall: "The Chinese-American story is an American story."

- Chinese-Americans have contributed to the United States' construction, fought in its wars and built communities from coast to coast
- 'Chinese are not recent arrivals. We see ourselves as an American history museum,' says executive director
